

Brief Biography of Student Representative of 2015

It should be noted that this brief biography will be placed on the UNISEC Global website (<http://www.unisec-global.org>) for publication.

For our compilation, please submit this biography in word file.

Please fill in the following blanks and paste a portrait.

Country	Japan	Portrait
Name of Student Rep	Ryo Hirasawa
University/College	Keio University
Email Address	r.hirasawa@keio.jp
Brief Biography	R. Hirasawa was born in Kyoto, Japan, in 1992. He received the B.S. degree in engineering from department of system design engineering, Keio University, Yokohama, Japan, in 2014. His research interest includes spacecraft attitude determination and control. His research was presented in IAC 2014 and AIAA SciTech 2015. In addition, He is interested in the CanSat project. He belongs to the CanSat team as mechanical engineer in 2013 and project manager in 2014.
Research Interests	He is interested in the advanced CanSat. CanSat is usually the educational program. However, he thinks CanSat is able to solve a social problem. The advanced CanSat was developed for challenging missions. The advanced CanSat requires advanced technology, suitable management and societal necessity for the mission.

(End)